Dear Mary Taylor Memorial family,

The Protestant Reformation began on October 31, 1517 when an Augustinian monk, Martin Luther, nailed his Ninety-five Theses to the door of the cathedral church in Wittenberg, Germany. His call to scholarly debate—the theses were written in Latin, not German—of certain questionable practices in the Church “went viral” through the 16th century version of the Internet: the printing press. Translated into German, they became the rallying cry for reform.

Today’s Call to Worship from Romans 5:1-5 is the pivotal text that convinced Luther that salvation was not the property of the Church, to be sold through “indulgences” (pardons from sin), but the gift of grace, a free gift of God in Christ. This emphasis on grace is what so closely ties Methodism to the theology of Luther. In fact, the founder of Methodism, the Rev. John Wesley, had his conversion (“I felt my heart strangely warmed”) in a Moravian prayer meeting where “one was reading Martin Luther’s preface to St. Paul’s epistle to the Romans.” (quotes from Mr. Wesley’s Journal).

As heirs to this legacy of grace, each new generation of our church must ask “To what degree is my church in keeping with the radical love of Jesus, and to what extent have we drifted into institutional self-preservation and the sale of what God intends as a free gift?”

Sincerely in Christ,

Pastor Brian
