BISHOP BICKERTON INVITES YOU TO DINNER AND CONVERSATION

On Tuesday, December 5 at 6:30 p.m., our Bishop, Thomas J. Bickerton, will unveil “2018 and Beyond,” a conversation about the mission, vision, values, goals and strategic plan for the New York Annual (regional) Conference of The United Methodist Church.

YOU ARE INVITED! The event will be held at Golden Hill United Methodist Church, 210 Elm Street, Bridgeport (GPS address at 345 Golden Hill Street). Some parking is available on the street, and we will coordinate transportation with those desiring to attend.

The host church needs to know in advance for meal planning purposes how many will attend. If you desire to attend, please contact Eileen Doyle by voice mail or text at 203.710.5842 or by e-mail at ddoyle51@aol.com NOT LATER THAN THURSDAY, NOV. 30.

For the past twelve months, Bishop Bickerton has been listening to the voices, concerns and hope of the New York Annual Conference. He is now ready to share what God has directed him to do as part of his assignment to our conference.

It is a rare moment for most of us to have face-to-face time with our Bishop, who presides over 450+ churches spanning two states and hundreds of miles. Please consider taking advantage of this opportunity to join Bishop Bickerton in envisioning the future for “the people called Methodist” in New York and western Connecticut.

Grace Notes
November 19, 2017

Dear Mary Taylor Memorial Church community,

“Come, Ye Thankful People, Come” trumpets the lyricist of our opening hymn, a perennial favorite at Thanksgiving. I pray you and your family will indeed be thankful at this harvest time of year; and that you will have a blessed holiday.

Thank you for your outpouring of care for our New Haven neighbors at AIDS Project New Haven and Christian Community Action. The bags on the altar and elsewhere in the sanctuary are testimony to your thanksgiving as “thanks-living” for neighbors near and far.

The harvest produce in the sanctuary is donated by Jones Family Farms of Shelton and picked up and arranged by many volunteers. We are grateful to all for the inspiring display.

Tasha Coleman-Jackson from the American Red Cross fell ill last week which is why she was not with us. She is here today to register you if you are willing and able to participate in tomorrow’s Blood Drive in Dodd Hall.

Please sign up today for Thanksgiving Day dinner if you (a) intend to eat with us, (b) can bring a dessert, (c) can volunteer or (d) all of the preceding! Speak with Deb Dubien.

Thanks to our Men’s Club for providing the Thanksgiving feast after worship today. We “trust in the Lord” to provide enough for those who wish to stay. All are invited. Blood pressure screenings are offered after worship in the sanctuary today by Dianne Carroll, R.N.

This faith community is incredibly blessed. May we never, ever take it, or each other, for granted.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Rev. Dr. Brian R. Bodt, Pastor

ADDRESSING CHURCH SECURITY

THE MOST RECENT VIOLENCE to befall a public setting after the November 5th shooting at First Baptist Church, Sutherland Springs, Texas is the school shooting in Rancho Tehama Reserve, California on Nov. 14. Scripture reminds us "perfect love casts out fear" (I John 4:18) but also to "Keep awake, therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour." (Matthew 25:13).

In consultation with our Church Council and Staff-Parish Relations Chairs, I have invited leaders from our church who have law enforcement, security, education and/or public health experience to convene on November 30th to review our current crisis management protocols. The membership of this task force will be publicized when finalized. You may offer questions and concerns to me, Dennis Darak, Edie Reichard or any task force member as we seek to take a pro-active approach to the challenging times in which we live.

Pastor Brian Bodt
