INTROIT “Glory to God in the Highest”

*CALL TO WORSHIP A. Campbell Frazier, edited

Leader: Christ is ruler and monarch of all creation!

People: Let all peoples, nations and languages serve the goodness of the Lord!

Leader: Let us, today, hear his word, follow his teachings and live in his Spirit.

People: May the day soon come when every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that he is Lord, to God’s eternal glory!

*HYMN #73 “O Worship the King” Lyons

THE PRAYER OF THE DAY (seated, in unison) Hymnal #721

Almighty and everlasting God, it is your will to restore all things to Christ, whom you have anointed priest for ever and ruler of creation. Grant that all the people of the earth, now divided by the power of sin, may be united under the glorious and gentle rule of Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

God of mercy, your prophet declared your desire that we do justice, love mercy and walk humbly with you. And we do...sometimes. When we don’t, your witness is dimmed and your love flickers instead of flames. Forgive us when we promise too much and deliver too little. Remind us that “all have sinned and fallen short” of your glory. May this confession reflect a genuine desire to align with your vision of love and reconciliation for your hurting world. These things we ask in the name of Christ, the King. Amen.

THE REIGN OF CHRIST
UNITED METHODIST STUDENT DAY
November 26, 2017

BISHOP BICKERTON INVITES YOU TO DINNER AND CONVERSATION

On Tuesday, December 5 at 6:30 p.m., our Bishop, Thomas J. Bickerton, will unveil “2018 and Beyond,” a conversation about the mission, vision, values, goals and strategic plan for the New York Annual (regional) Conference of The United Methodist Church.

YOU ARE INVITED! The event will be held at Golden Hill United Methodist Church, 210 Elm Street, Bridgeport (GPS address at 345 Golden Hill Street). Some parking is available on the street, and we will coordinate transportation with those desiring to attend.

The host church needs to know in advance for meal planning purposes how many will attend. If you desire to attend, please contact Eileen Doyle by voice mail or text at 203.710.5842 or by e-mail at ddoyle51@aol.com NOT LATER THAN THIS THURSDAY, NOV. 30.

For the past twelve months, Bishop Bickerton has been listening to the voices, concerns and hope of the New York Annual Conference. He is now ready to share what God has directed him to do as part of his assignment to our conference.

It is a rare moment for most of us to have face-to-face time with our Bishop, who presides over 450+ churches spanning two states and hundreds of miles. Please consider taking advantage of this opportunity to join Bishop Bickerton in envisioning the future for “the people called Methodist” in New York and western Connecticut.

UPDATE ON CHURCH SECURITY

THE CHURCH COUNCIL endorsed the creation of a Church Security Task Force at their November 16th meeting. Members include Steve Bettencourt, Pastor Brian Bodt, Michelle Connor, Cathy Cono, Dennis Darak, Dave Doyle, Deb Dubien, Holly Firmender, Sheryl Hollyday, Shelly Lapadula, Pastor Dani Levine, Lee Littrell, Kelly O’Hara, Chris Paton, Maryann Petremont, Edie Reichard, Becky Virgalla and Bob Virgalla. They will meet this Thursday, Nov. 30, 5:30 – 7 p.m. in the Gunn Library to review our current crisis management protocols. You may offer questions and comments to any task force member as we seek to take a pro-active approach to the challenging times in which we live. Scripture reminds us “perfect love casts out fear” (I John 4:18) but also to “Keep awake, therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour.” (Matthew 25:13).

*Grace Notes
November 26, 2017*

Dear Mary Taylor Memorial Church community,

World AIDS Day is this Friday, December 1st. Although great strides in treatment have been made since the discovery of this disease 36 years ago much more remains to be done. Enclosed in today’s bulletin is a synopsis of this epidemic.

We welcome this morning Mr. Ben Bloom, Chair of the Board of Directors of AIDS Project New Haven to offer us a Mission Moment on this organization that our church has supported for many years. Mr. Bloom’s profile is on the reverse of the related insert.

Please wear a red ribbon, prepared and offered by Kelly O’Hara and Beth O’Brien of our Gay-Straight Alliance, as a way to express support for persons with AIDS.

Today is United Methodist Student Day. We are happy that many of our college students have been able to be home for the Thanksgiving holiday, but sad that school and travel schedules have meant that most – including my own! – are returning to school and unable to be with us. Nonetheless, we applaud our students’ pursuit of higher education.

Today’s special offering will be divided equally to support United Methodist Student Day scholarships and the Kelsey-Worley Scholarship Fund. The former offers scholarships to all United Methodist students and the latter to qualifying students from our church. Please give as you are able in the enclosed envelope.

Please especially note the article on “Next Sunday.” It is filled with events and deadlines that will be of interest.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Rev. Dr. Brian R. Bodt, Pastor
