SEED-SOWING

John Wesley, the founder of Methodism, was a man of many interests. Not only did he preside over the development of the Methodist movement, travel hundreds of thousands of miles, preach over twenty thousand sermons, write numerous books, pamphlets and hymns, he also authored books on medical advice, personal finance, and other practical guides for living.

In this latter vein, Wesley started a seed-planting program. Noticing the drabness of the English villages through which he rode in the last half of the 18th century, Wesley began to distribute flower seeds to local townspeople. Through this form of horticultural evangelism, many beautiful gardens came into bloom. Call him the "Johnny Flowerseed" of Great Britain.

It is an exaggeration to attribute (as some do) the transformation of the English countryside into one of the most colorful in the world solely to the seed-distribution program of the Methodists. Yet no doubt there are more gardens throughout the British Isles today than there would have been, had not Wesley imagined a way to brighten and beautify the lives of those around him.

To the gardeners among us, this story may serve as an inspiration to combine a love of God's creation with service to God's kingdom. Such synergisms are very Methodist---putting together the practical and the spiritual in a potent blend.

For the rest of us, nature lovers or not, there is this: We are all planters. By our words and by our actions we sow seeds that blossom often long after our planting them. Seeds of love. Seeds of understanding. Seeds of hope, peace, joy, and faith. Or seeds of distrust, dishonesty and discord.

As kingdom-planters, God asks us to envision the resplendent possibilities lying beneath the present drabness. What is God wanting us to plant, that it might take on shape and form? Like traveling seed-sowers, we may not be around to see the harvest. But our job is to plant and to water and let God do the growing, in God's own time.

All it takes is a little faith, some creative imagination, and a willingness to drop seeds into what may appear to be lifeless soil. It is remarkable to see what God can grow from the smallest of beginnings.

For truly I tell you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you can move mountains; nothing will be impossible for you. (Matthew 17:20)

Happy Planting,
Pastor Roy

6:00 p.m. MONDAY EVENING PRAYER CIRCLE

Led by Nathan Williams & Holly Firmender

In the Wesley Center Chapel

Every Monday at 6:00 p.m. in the Wesley Center Chapel, Mary Taylor Memorial UMC members gather to share stories of how God is moving in their lives and lift up the prayer concerns of our entire church community. It's a sacred time spent in fellowship but not necessarily a somber time – in fact, we spend much of our time together rejoicing in each other's "praise reports." Praise Reports put us in mind of the many ways our lives are blessed each week, and how blessings can surprise us, emerging from all directions! From a special interaction while standing in line at Scratch Bakery, to the joys of reconnecting with family and loved ones, an inspirational Footsteps meeting, or a special moment recalled from the Sunday Service – we celebrate and give praise to God for gifts big and small.

Of course, we also lift up the Prayers of the People when we gather. Each week, an email request for prayer concerns goes out to the entire church, asking for prayer concerns that people can share from their hearts. My prayer co-leader (and our fantastic church lay leader), Holly Firmender, gathers these together for us to share prayerfully. If you don't receive the weekly email request for prayers please call the office at 203-874-1982 so we can email you one. All of us gathered in the chapel will lift up your prayers and ask for God's blessing. The technical term for what we are doing is "intercessory prayer," but all that really means is that we are praying on behalf of others. It's an age-old tradition that dates back to the very earliest days of the church.

If you're looking for a peaceful, joyful time in intimate fellowship with the Lord, we warmly invite you to take a break from your busy schedule and join us next week! It's a beautiful opportunity to connect with your church community, share your joys and concerns, and deepen your relationship with God. We look forward to seeing you there! To learn more, please contact any regular leader: Nathan Williams 504-957-5571, or Holly Firmender 203-530-2621 .

2025 Fair on the Green THANK YOU!!!

Another successful Fair on the Green is in the books! We wish to thank everyone who supported our Fair! Here are some of the many ways you helped: donating (to Laura's Treasure Trove, bake table, plant table), volunteering, praying for the fair, shopping and preparing food, helping set up and/or break down, publicizing the fair, providing entertainment and vendor hospitality, organizing kids activities, offering administrative support, lending your specialized expertise, recruiting friends and family to participate, and of course shopping at the Fair!

We couldn't have done it without each and every person who contributed. And God was glorified in so many ways through our collective efforts. We shared the best of Mary Taylor through our hospitality and fellowship and provided a place of welcome and positivity for our community. Our care for our vendors and customers distinguishes our fair and makes us a preferred event for the future. We celebrated, worked together, helped each other, and looked out for fellow volunteers to help everyone have a positive fair experience.

Praise God from whom all blessings flow! Volunteers will be recognized and final results will be shared in worship later this summer. Mark your calendars now for next year's Fair on the Green - June 5-6, 2026. We look forward to another successful fair!

UNITED WOMEN IN FAITH

Submitted by Chris McGregor

"The organized unit of United Women in Faith shall be a community of women whose purpose is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative, supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church."

All women of the church are invited to join United Women in Faith. Here at MTMUMC, we meet on the second Tuesday of each month, September through June. We alternate noon and evening meetings to try to accommodate different schedules for the women of this church. Please come to whatever time works for you.

We had a great Mother-Daughter Dinner attended by a record 56 people including two children under 20 months, Eli and Audrey. The Merva family had four generations present! This year we were joined by Honey Bunches of Notes, an award-winning quartet who entertained us with wonderful music. It was a terrific evening of food, music, fun and fellowship!

Our next meeting will be June 10th at noon. Our schedule for the rest of the year will be Sept. 9th at noon; Oct.- date TBD for a special Binky Blanket event; Nov. 11 at noon; Dec. 9th-Christmas Party.

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

By Joan Zauner

"When there are no words, a prayer shawl speaks volumes."

Janet Bristow, co-founder of the prayer shawl ministry.

The Prayer Shawl Ministry was founded by Janet Bristow and Victoria Gala at the Hartford Seminary. They felt shawls had been a source of comfort for years. To continue that in a more formal way became their goal. This has grown to be a service practiced world-wide.

The ladies have been very busy these last few months. Good thing with summer coming, it will be too hot to work on shawls. Luckily we do have a good supply to get us through.

If you would like to join us in this ministry, we will be meeting

Thursday, June 12 at 7pm in the Wesley Center Library. We will then break for the summer and then meet again on Thursday September 11th.

We are willing to help you learn.

Call Joan Zauner at 203-283-5643 for additional information.

Prayer shawls are always available after church on Sundays, see Joan Zauner, Phoebe Repetsky or Sue Reynolds, or during the week through the church office. 203-874-1982.

FINANCIAL DONATIONS AND YARN DONATIONS ARE ALWAYS APPRECIATED.

The Mission Committee is currently collecting MEN'S Spring clothing and footwear to provide to members of our community during our Community Suppers each month. There is a box labeled for the donations near the entrance to Dodd Hall. Please contact Maryann Petremont or Beth O'Brien if you have any questions. Thank you.

DURING THE MONTH OF JUNE
we will be collecting PROTEIN DRINKS AND PROTEIN BARS.
JULY—BOTTLED WATER & INDIVIDUAL PACKAGES OF NUTS
AUGUST—CANNED SOUP & SNACKS

The collection bins are in the back of the Sanctuary and in Wesley Center. If you would like to help with the Purple Pantry, please call Shelley Lapadula at 203-258-2777 or email her at m.lapadula@rubens-lazinger.com.
